January 25, 2022

Dear Parents/Guardians & Staff:

Your child might bring home their iPad/Chromebook today in preparation for a possible inclement weather day.

At this time, I expect that we will be IN SCHOOL on Wednesday, January 26, 2022. As you know, we would need to see temperatures sustained at the -15 degree mark (-30 windchill) before we would cancel school due to temperatures. The National Weather Service does NOT forecast temperatures this low for Wednesday.

Nonetheless, I want our students to be prepared should the forecast worsen. I would, of course, notify families if the weather impacts our plan to be in school tomorrow.

Again, we expect to be IN SCHOOL on Wednesday, January 26, 2022.

Sincerely,

Lori D. Bein, Ed.D.
Superintendent
