Organizational Board of Education Meeting

During a March meeting, the Board of Education establishes a date for its organizational meeting. In odd-numbered years when local elections are held, the organizational meeting will be held sometime after the election authority canvasses the vote, but within 28 days after the consolidated election which is held on the first Tuesday in April.

At the organizational meeting the following shall occur:

1. The new Board of Education members shall be immediately seated, in years where an election has occurred.
2. The Board of Education shall elect its officers, who assume office immediately upon their election.
3. The Board of Education shall fix a time and date for its regular meetings.
