Erin's Law Survey

During the 2015-16 school year, AHSD 25 began implementation of curriculum to support Erin's Law, for students in early childhood through 8th grade. If you have feedback or suggestions regarding this year's implementation, based on the information sent home, or feedback from your child(ren) after participation, please take a moment to complete this short survey. District social workers and the Department of Student Services will review all input as we plan for the continued implementation of Erin's Law in our schools.

Support a cause & be on TV!

This Friday morning, WGN Morning News will be on site to support one of Greenbrier's students, Ben Noble, who is the Arlington Heights Fire Department's Muscular Dystrophy Association Ambassador. Come out to Jewel located on Vail Street in Downtown Arlington Heights between 7:55 am and 9:45 am and be a part of the live TV segments promoting Ben and the AHFD Fill the Boot Efforts!

District 25 Survey - Results

In late February, we were so excited to launch our engagement process with Arlington Heights and the District 25 community. Please visit the link below to view the survey results! The District's strategic planning committee met in late April and used these survey results as a foundation for future plans and thoughts for our District.
